

Join us at Temple Beth Sholom for
"Klezmer, Yiddish and All That Jazz,"
 Sunday, March 14 at 2:00 P.M.

Step back with us to the years when a vibrant Yiddish culture flourished in this country. Do you think of your grandparents, or great grandparents as living stodgy, dull lives, filled with hardship and hard work? You may be surprised at the vast array of culture and entertainment they were immersed in. There were Yiddish newspapers, Yiddish theater, Klezmer music, and Oy!, the humor! Did you know there were even Jewish radio stations? Can you imagine? Now you can do more than just imagine. Come and listen for yourself. Reminiscent of those old time radio shows, this concert will bring the rich world of Jewish music, complete with some of the Yiddish commercials, right to the audience. Whether you were lulled to sleep by the lullaby "Ofyn Pripetshok", just know a few choice words of Yiddish, or can't even imagine what Yiddish sounds like, this concert is for YOU! We'll have something for everyone in the family. Even some newer pieces. So come experience, interact, listen and enjoy your plunge into a vat of vibrant Jewish culture. And don't forget the reception after the performance!
